TWO GOOD MEN

Claimed by the Grim Reaper in One Day.

Mr. James C. Moore, of Near Town and Mr. Wm. T. Bronaugh, of Pembroke.

Mr. James C. Moore, one of the best citizens of Christian county, died of pneumonia Wednesday afternoon in the 56th year of his age. Mr. Moore was born in this county in 1847, and was a son of James W. Moore, one of the most prominent members of the Masonic order who ever lived in this county. He grew to manhood on his father's farm and received a liberal education. He became a successful planter and in 1877 was married to Miss Bettie Campbell, second daughter of B. S. and Maria Campbell. His wife and five children survive him. The children are Jas. C. Moore, Jr., a civil engineer with the L. & N. railroad, at Evansville; Miss Mary Moore, Ben and Gus, of this city, and Milton, the youngest, still in school.

Mr. Moore's death was shocking. He was sick only a few days. He was a man of commanding presence and fine physique. More than six feet in height and of athletic build, he was the very picture of health and strength. He was a member of and elder in the Ninth Street Presbyterian church, and his life was that of a consistent Christian and a most useful man and citizen.

The funeral services were held at one o'clock yesterday afternoon and the burial took place in Hopewell Cemetery later in the afternoon.

W. T. BRONAUGH,

One of Pembroke's Best Men Passes Away.

Mr. William T. Bronaugh, of Pembroke, died Wednesday afternoon of heart disease. He had been in failing health for some time. He was about 60 years old and was born in Louisa county, Virginia. He came to this county when a young man and had lived here nearly forty years. He was twice married. Two or three children by his first marriage live in the vicinity of Pembroke. Mr. Charlie Bronaugh is his son and he leaves one daughter, Miss Lillie Bronaugh. His second wife survives him.

Mr. Bronaugh was a prominent and highly esteemed citizen, and a member of the Baptist church at Pembroke.

He owned a fine farm in the suburbs of Pembroke, and lived in a handsome residence in the town of Pembroke. He also engaged largely in the tobacco business until his health began to fail a few years ago. The interment took place at Pembroke yesterday.

SEEKS LEGAL SEPARATION.

More Divorce Suits Filed For Spring Term.

Mary A. Ruffin has sued for divorce from James H. Ruffin. The plaintiff, in her petition, states that they were married in January, 1899, and lived together until the following September, at which time the defendant left and abandoned her and their infant. She further states that she knew not of his intentions until she received a letter from him, written in Louisville, stating that he would not return. He is now in Illinois. In addition to a divorce, plaintiff asks the court to grant her $50 per month alimony.

Charles Woolridge sues for a legal separation from Sylvia Woolridge. The petition states that they were married Sept. 5, 1899, and lived together as man and wife only five days, when the defendant of her own accord, abandoned plaintiff.

HOLLAND'S OPERA HOUSE

Damaged by Fire Yesterday Afternoon.

A fire in the interior of Holland's Opera House yesterday afternoon at 3:30 destroyed the piano and a portion of the front of the stage, before the fire was controlled by the department.

The Stag Saloon underneath was also badly damaged. Mr. Wood was not at home. The only person on the premises was a colored boy, who, with a dog and monkey, were in the kitchen. The boy was asleep and had to be aroused by the fire company. It is not known how the fire originated.

The fire, it is supposed originated from a cigarette stump, probably thrown behind the piano. The show to-night will not be interfered with.

At Blackford he states he was transferred to another train and had to complete his journey in the compartment of a coach claimed to be reserved for colored passengers, in which there was no fire. Perfect Health Restored.

"Several years ago I met with an accident which caused falling of the uterus," writes Mrs. P. H. McMillan, Secretary of the Young Women's Tennis Club, and residing at 113 Newberry Avenue, Chicago, Ill. "I did not pay any attention to it until I felt pain, and ulceration and inflammation set in. Was so weak that I was obliged to be in bed most of the time. Luckily for me I tried Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which cured me completely after using it only a little over three months. I have had perfect health since, and have every reason to believe that your medicine will surely cure female troubles."

In Excellent Health, Now.

"In the fall of 1897, I was troubled with nervousness, headache, heart trouble, and female weakness," writes Miss Blanche M. Bracey, Oswego County, N. Y. "Last summer I wrote you and you advised me to try your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I did so and began to improve rapidly. Continued taking the medicines, half-a-dozen each of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' for the space of four or five months, and in less than a year had regained my former health. I have my heartfelt thanks for the remedies have done for me. I am in excellent health now, but am still using your 'Pleasant Pellets.'"

Miss Blanche M. Bracey

"Sick Women Made Well."

How much that sentence means. The difference between the life of a sickly and healthy woman is the difference between the darkened room and the out-door sunshine; the sick-bed and the bicycle; the tennis court and a parlor. And to that difference must be added the aching back, headache, nervousness, and general suffering inevitably associated with womanly diseases. A sick woman is like one who has fallen into a pit in the midst of a beautiful landscape. As she lies there crippled and helpless she can see the blue sky and sunshine overhead, and hear the songs of happy birds, and in an agony of longing to be free, she cries feebly for help to lift her once more to the fair world and human companionship.

That is the one need of the sick woman—HELP. She cannot regain lost health without it, and it should be a comfort to every sick woman to know that the help she needs to lift her up from sickness to health is to be found in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The history of this remarkable medicine is written by women themselves in multitudes of grateful letters. These letters reveal experiences of great suffering from womanly diseases. But the motive of the letters is not to dwell upon past suffering, but to say a word of gratitude and praise for perfect health and healing by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Some of these letters we have the privilege of publishing in spite of the objection of many women to even fit slight publicity, because as they write, "I want other sick women to know of this wonderful cure of womanly ills, and to find health as I have."

Let it be remembered that every promise made for "Favorite Prescription" goes hand in hand with performance. Do you doubt that it would cure you? Whatever your case or condition, if it is curable by medicine, like cases have been cured by "Favorite Prescription." It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. Women who are weak and run-down, whether from work or worry, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a perfect tonic and nerve. It restores the appetite, tranquilizes the nerves, and induces refreshing sleep.

Any sick woman who is suffering from disease in aggravated and chronic form is cordially invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for sick women.

A VALUABLE GIFT. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing more than 1000 large pages, is sent FREE on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing ONLY. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume.

The Farmer and Poultry Breeding.

Notwithstanding the splendid opportunity the farm affords for poultry raising advantage is not taken of the resources, and the average flocks of farm poultry are rarely ever self-supporting. Proper business management of the flocks would result in profit. Poultry raising will enable the farmer to bring into profitable use the unworkable hillsides and the rough rock lands, which make ideal ranging grounds for poultry.

The so-called poultry fancier is successful because he gives his flocks personal business attention. He knows the value of a varied diet; he has proved that the ration which will fatten his poultry is not the best for producing eggs. He aims, as does the expert dairyman, to give a balanced ration for some specific purpose. He knows that poultry profit mainly comes from winter eggs. In order to get winter eggs he knows there must be, first, a healthy flock, free from vermin; comfortable chicken houses, kept scrupulously clean. Experience has proved that the best of foods are always the cheapest. Green food of some kind in winter is essential. The hens should earn a good portion of their daily allowance by scratching for it. Poultrymen now admit the scratching shed is one of the most important factors in winter egg production. It gives the hens needed exercise, which keeps them warm and in good health. The idea of keeping up the stamina of a flock of poultry by introducing new blood, unless the new blood comes from a flock bred and raised rightly, and proper selection of the home flock is followed, is a myth.

The profitable qualities of all breeds of poultry is the result of careful, intelligent selection. Size, early maturity, early and continuous egg laying, all may be greatly improved in a flock by proper selection and without the use of any new blood. The so-called poultrymen who make poultry raising a very profitable business, with few exceptions, are not so favorably situated for poultry raising as most farmers are. They simply take advantage of all opportunities in a business way and look carefully after all the details. There are a number of factors governing profitable poultry raising. Some of them are very little things, but they are like the cogs in a wheel—each little cog performs a service of importance; knock out one and all are thrown out of gear. So it is with poultry; the little essentials to success must be observed, both single and as a whole. One of the main reasons why women are generally more successful with poultry than men is because they more carefully look after all the little details and are invariably more particular about the comfort and cleanliness of the flocks.

The proper way for a farmer to commence poultry raising on the farm in a business way is to start with a flock of from 25 to 50. Every hen should be as near alike in shape as possible. At the head of the flock should be a Plymouth Rock or a Wyandotte male. The second season the selection should be made still more carefully—both uniformity in size and plumage being carefully observed. The idea should always be to breed to a certain type. Nothing but pure bred males should head the flock. This plan is the only one to build up from a common flock. Of course a much better way is to start at once with a pure breed.

The superiority of the pure breeds does not seem to be fully understood by many farmers. If a farmer will visit a commission house in any large city makes a specialty of poultry selling he will learn these facts. The commission man will tell him the pure breeds always sell for more because they are alike in appearance and shape. He can tell a lot of common chickens as soon as he opens a package of dressed poultry. Why? Because some have short backs, some long, some are full-breasted and some are not; long and short legged specimens; even though all may be in comparatively good condition this variation will exist. There can be no fixed type with mongrels. Therefore the commission man classes such packages as "mixed lots" or "seconds" and they sell accordingly.

Appearance in any product is a most excellent invitation for the best class of customers, who are willing to pay the price for a choice article. Pure breeds cost less to keep and invariably give better returns for their keeping.

An apple orchard makes a very excellent poultry run. The shade afforded is not too dense. The hens and chicks will keep down many insects that are injurious to the trees. The hen house should always be situated on an elevation, or so arranged to insure perfect freedom from dampness if situated elsewhere. The sashed part of the house should face the south, which will give plenty of sunshine in the windows in winter time and little at other seasons.

A few things to remember in poultry-raising are these: When the ground is frozen or covered with snow grit must be supplied. Crushed oyster shells are excellent. Grease the inside of the water vessels so the ice won't stick to them; empty the water vessels every night. Cleanliness is necessary at all seasons. That dampness and roosting in drafts is the cause of many poultry ailments. That in cold weather the eggs should be gathered several times a day. That hens are more reliable sitters than pullets. That keeping the flock tame adds to their value in many ways. That eggs from unduly fat hens rarely ever hatch. That an overfat male should not be at the head of the flock. That sick fowls should be penned by themselves and not be allowed to run around with the flock. That continuous feeding of one thing is apt to produce serious cases of indigestion and bowel trouble.

Which is the best breed? is a question often asked. It might properly be answered by saying it depends upon the man as much as the breed. Every poultryman who is making a specialty of one breed thinks his breed is the best. And it is true just as long as he thinks so. The best breed, then, depends on the man behind the hens. There is more difference in men than there is in breeds of poultry. Any breed that does not do well is handicapped by conditions, surroundings and lack of favorable opportunity. Of course these are breeds that are justly considered as more generally in favor than others. The Barred Plymouth Rocks and the White Wyandottes are to-day more extensively bred than any other breeds. Why? Because they are considered more of a general purpose breed? Their chicks at a certain age make the best broilers, can be put in marketable condition early and at less cost than other breeds. The hens make good mothers. Chicks are strong and rapid growers. They are considered good winter layers. All these qualities are desirable.

It should be understood there is a great difference in strains of fowls regarding utility qualities. For instance, we know of a strain of Barred Rocks which the owner has been for years developing, making careful selection for improvement in size, early and continuous egg-laying and eggs of good size. These desirable points have been wonderfully improved and at the same time the standard plumage markings have been so well kept and improved that birds from this breeder's yards have often been winners. There is no reason why beauty and utility should not be well-matched team on the road to success in poultry raising.

The points considered in judging poultry are not, as many people seem to consider, simply fancy points. Each breed has its distinctive characteristics, and these so-called points which the judge considers are really the requirements the respective breeds should possess to denote that they are pure bred. These points, of course, vary in their degrees of excellence and in considering them the judge ascertains which specimen is nearest to the ideal bird the standard describes.—Commercial Poultry.

HON. ROBERT C. BROWN.

One of the Most Prominent Men in Southwestern Illinois.

Robert C. Brown, of Sparta, Ill., has represented his district, the 48th, for six years and was recently notified of his coming appointment as clerk of the U. S. Court for the Southern District of Illinois. He was born in 1859, and has worked his way to the top simply by force of application, energy and good common sense. After working several years as a blacksmith, he studied law at night and was admitted to the bar in 1894. He is a prominent member of the Knights of Pythias, the Elks and Modern Woodmen. February 20, 1901, he writes as follows:

"Pepsin Syrup Co., Dear Sirs—From careful and varied experience I desire to add my testimony as to the merit of your Pepsin Syrup preparation. It is in many respects equal to the services of a dozen physicians. I have used it as a tonic after severe illness and as a strengthener for the stomach and digestive organs. In one case in particular it was of inestimable value in my household, and it is with pleasure that I testify as to its worth as a household remedy. Yours respectfully, R. C. Brown, Representative 4th Senatorial district, Sparta, Ill."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and Herbolaxative Compound is sold by all druggists in 50c and $1.00 bottles.

Ashes Scattered Over Sea. In accordance with a promise made her husband before his death, a New Jersey woman scattered his ashes over the sea.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Ferguson Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite a long time before she was able to move. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and sore muscles. He asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The balm was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by C. K. Wylie, druggist.

Death Sentence Commuted. The death sentence imposed on Col. Arthur Lynch was commuted to life imprisonment.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, L. L. D. Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first rising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces cough, and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to a nervous, aching, sore throat or throat or lung troubles." Price 25c, 50c, $1.00 bottle at R. C. Hardwick's.

Many Lives Lost. Fifty-two persons were burned to death in a fire which destroyed five buildings in the Conkey Hatch Lunatic Asylum, London.

"Little Colds" neglected—thousands of lives sacrificed every year. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures little colds—cures big colds, too, down to the very verge of consumption.

Had Tempestuous Voyage. The steamer Dawson City, eighty-six days from home, reached Port Townsend Sunday after a tempestuous voyage. The steamer was delayed by a succession of accidents.

Property worth $300,000 was destroyed in the town of Armagh, Ireland.

About forty-five members of the Kentucky Press Association held a meeting in Louisville Tuesday to discuss business matters. A banquet was the leading feature, at which some informal speeches were made.

The voting contest is now but little more than a month off and if you want to take a hand in it, come in without delay and pay your subscription if you owe, and renew for another year. Don't wait until the final rush.

The table of contents of the Feb-pick from all the periodicals of the month 112 pages of better or more varied reading than one will find most noteworthy is Will H. Low's great Gilbert Stuart. It is deligh-

THE INJUNCTION SUIT.

The injunction suit now pending in the court of appeals to test the legality of the primary election
called for May 7 will be dismissed, but will be called for trial April 13. It is important to the present and future welfare of the party to have the court of last resort pass upon this question on its merits and decide just how far a party's governing authority may proceed contrary to party rules.
We believe the defendants are making a serious mistake in resisting an early adjournment of the questions raised, and it is to be hoped that they may even yet consent to an advancement. Delay is the favorite expedient of the litigant with a bad cause. In withdrawing his opposition in the committee to the preparations for the primary, while tied up in the courts, the appellant
has not changed his convictions.

$100 Reward, $100.

Readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that it is to be hoped Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for an entire cure, if it fails to cure. Sent for list of test-

An Ancient Foe

To health and happiness is Scrofula—
as ugly as ever since time immemorial.
It causes bumps in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease and the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption.

"A bump appeared on the left side of my neck. It caused great pain, was itched, and became a running sore. I went into a general decline. I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken six bottles my neck was healed, and I have never had any trouble of the kind since."
—Mrs. K. T. Setzer, Troy, Ohio.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

will rid you of it, usually and permanently, as they have rid thousands.

and has merely decided to withhold factious opposition while waiting for a decision in April. If the primary is legal, the preparations
will have been made for holding it.
If it is unlawful, further action will of course have to be taken by the committee.

An Early Estimate.

The Democratic vote in this judicial district by counties in 1900
was as follows:

Calloway.....	2,874
Christian.....	3,264
Lyon.....	1,005
Trigg.....	1,533

Total..... 8,676
If the candidates for circuit judge poll 75 per cent of the votes, the total will be 6,507 and the successful candidate would have to get in round numbers about 3,300.

It is a little early for figures, but Judge Bush's friends expect with confidence that he will poll the following votes by counties:

Calloway.....	800
Christian.....	2,000
Lyon.....	600
Trigg.....	600

Total..... 4,000
On a fuller vote his strength would probably be about 4,500 and probably more.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mrs. M. E. Massie, of Washington, announces the marriage of her granddaughter, Mrs. Lizzie Evans Clardy, to Col. Joutet Henry on Tuesday, February 18, 1903. The wedding will take place in Washington. There will be no cards.
Major Henry has a host of friends
not only here but all over Kentucky,
who will extend good wishes with their congratulations.

The confession of Youtsey has leaked out and was published in the Courier-Journal of Wednesday.
He says Jim Howard was the assassin and that he was in the room with him. The chief conspirators
were Taylor, Finley, Caleb Powers, John Powers, Culton, Golden, W. J.
Davidson and himself. Davidson,
the only new man involved, is now
in Washington state.

Now that we are to have a primary under the law, Democrats should go to work and beat every member of the Beckham gang who,
but for the kick raised by the people and papers, would have forced a snap primary fixed to elect the gang whether or no. Lick 'em in the word, and lick 'em good.—Murray

POOR PAY

For This Burglar Who Got Less
Than $1.

A thief effected an entrance to the saloon of Andrew Buckner, colon East Seventh street, Saturday night, by raising the grate on the sidewalk. He secured only about 90 cents in cash. The liquors were not disturbed.

Died of Measles.

A little child of Mr. David Anderson, of Barlington, formerly surveyor of this county, died Saturday of measles. The remains were brought here and interred in the Dick Boyd burying ground Sunday.

The Primary.

The Democratic State Executive Committee finally came out for a primary under the Carroll law, turned down the scheme to put the machinery in the cities in the hands of a "special commission," delegated conduct of the primary to the local committees in each and every county, limited the cost to $16,000,
each candidate to pay pro rata according to the value of the office,
putting an additional expense
upon the successful candidates, deferred the adoption of a new platform and selection of new committees until 1904, and provided for the special registration of unregistered Democrats in the cities. While there is no authority for the latter provision under the Carroll law, we assume no objection will be raised to it, and now that there is no prospect of a legal test of the action of the committee by any candidate or other person having a property right, we take it there will be no factious opposition to the committee's decree. Certainly there shall be none from the News-Democrat.

Candidates who are not pleased or feel that a canvass under such circumstances would be too burdensome upon them may stay out of the contest and we presume they will.
We do not expect to see a serious contest for more than one, possibly two, of the state offices. We do not believe any of the candidates, especially the nominees, will ever resist this primary but once, and that will be always. We apprehend the expense will largely exceed the committee's estimates, but the committee has finally acted and that closes the discussion.
We congratulate Judge Lassing, and the party as well, that his more conservative ideas finally prevailed in the adoption of the general rules.—News-Democrat.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

In Every Line of Bob Taylor's
Lecture.

Few events of the present entertainment season in Hopkinsville can claim as much of genuine heart's interest or happy anticipation as the lecture next Monday evening at Holland's Opera House of ex-Gov.
Bob Taylor. It is "The Fiddle and the Bow" of which he will talk, the lecture that has won him a way probably to more hearts than any one lecture has ever achieved for any one man. There is an infectious, appealing charm and interest attached to this speaker to which every heart and every mind is ready and glad to yield. The thousands who have heard him will attest his merit as an entertainer. He has scattered more sunshine and created more laughter among the amusement-loving people than any man who has graced the platform within the memory of the present generation. His ideal of an evening's entertainment is to amuse an audience with song and story and picture, and the portrayal of character
—to hold up the mirror to human nature, and to light the temple of thought with windows of fun. To him "music is the wine of the soul,"
and "there is a melody in every sunbeam, a sunbeam in every melody."

There can be no question that it will be a large and brilliant audience at the Opera House to greet him Monday evening.

HUNTING CLUB.

Minutes of the Annual Hunt
last November.

Written For the Kentuckian By a Member of the Club.

The Christian County Hunting Club left Pembroke, Ky., Nov. 5, '02, 10 p. m. via the L. & N. railroad with the following gentlemen in the party: Capt. S. R. White, Capt. P. B. Pendleton, J. R. Caudle, P. M. Barker, W. A. Radford, C. C. Butler, J. B. Leigh, Isaac Leigh and Thomas Cooper. A jolly party of sportsmen, who with six servants, 20 dogs, horses, mules, wagons, camp equipment and provisions, before making camp, made out of a supply team for Forest's cavalry club and for their annual deer hunt in Arkansas.

The journey passed without special interest, other than some rough jolts on the freight train, till we reached Memphis and although Dick Butler thought fifteen minutes was long enough in Memphis we were compelled to stay there until 10 o'clock Friday morning before the Kate Adams could depart with us bound for Lacomia, Ark. Our good friend, Mr. T. T. Thompson, of Lacomia, met us in Memphis and accompanied us on our journey. We disembarked about 6 o'clock Saturday morning Nov. 8th and immediately proceeded to our camp on Scrub Grass Bayou, where we pitched our tents about noon. The afternoon was spent in arranging about camp, while a few went prospecting for fish and game.

Mr. J. K. Birth, of Birth's Landing, came into camp this evening and made a pleasant call. We are always glad to greet such true gentlemen and very sorry he had to return this evening.

The following is the Camp Roster.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 9TH.

After a good night's rest we arose feeling much refreshed and with eager appetites for breakfast, consisting of squirrel, fish and the good things prepared by the loving ones at home. The day passed quietly and while White and Barker explored the country across Cypress and Scrub Grass Bayous, Cooper and others went in the opposite direction. Caudle and Pendleton remained at camp and arranged things in good shape. It being Sunday no drives were made.

Mr. Bray came into camp this evening and took some of the boys out hunting by lamp light but soon returned without results. All retired early to secure a good night's rest and be ready for the morrow.

MONDAY, NOV. 10TH.

Up early this morning and in the woods before sun up, White and Pendleton in the drive, while Barker and Mr. Bray placed the standers along Cypress Bayou. The dogs soon had up a deer and carried him around the line of standers, no one seeing him or securing a shot. A drive was then made in Little Horse Shoe, but without results, the briars and undergrowth being so very thick in all these woods that it is difficult to make a successful drive, although game seems to be plentiful. Another drive was made late this evening, below camp, with the same results. Returned to camp weary and somewhat discouraged after a hard day's hunt and no game in camp.

TUESDAY, NOV. 11TH.

Weather still remains clear and very warm. Capt. Pendleton not feeling well, remained in camp. White and Caudle made the drive on Cypress Bayou again this morning, the standers being placed well up the line. Dogs soon had up a fine buck which they carried to Kelly who fired both barrels at close range to keep from being run over, thence to Dalton who fired two shots at long range, but on he ran into Big Horse Shoe.

The dogs were then called off and others taken from camp and a drive made below camp with the standers on the Club Hover Road. Dogs jumped a nice five point buck, carried him to Isaac Leigh who fired one shot at long range, thence to Barker who fired two shots without effect. On he went to Radford who felled him dead on the spot, firing two shots. This was a magnificent buck and very fat. Another drive was then made below the road and Cooper secured a shot at a nice doe from horseback but she ran contrary and got away. Returned to camp and after a fine supper of venison stew and steak, and reading our mail which had been sent from the station, we had a most pleasant time around the camp fire with hearty laughs and good cheer. Court was then called and the Judge arraigned Messrs. Ike Leigh, Tom Cooper, Pete Barker, Monroe Dalton and Frank Kelly for misdemeanor in missing shots. The prosecuting attorney was charged to fix and execute judgment, which he did by "detailing" each from ranks.

WEDNESDAY NOV. 12.

Up bright and early and in the woods before sun up, White and Pendleton in the drive, with standers placed well up the line on Cypress Bayou. While Barker was walking up the bayou on the far end of the line, he suddenly came upon two does and four fawns 40 yards distant and fired two shots, but they only gave him a pleasant smile and darted off in the bushes. The dogs jumped 2 or 3 others but no one secured a shot. A drive was then made on the other side of the willow flat, but the game ran contrary. Barker and Cooper with Wash and Miner then made a drive in the Big Horse Shoe and the dogs soon had up a deer which ran contrary. All then returned to camp with more expression than game, but oh! what a feast awaited us, with venison steak and stew, hot biscuit and coffee, hominy and apple pie. The weather is warm and threatening to-night and our tent ropes and fly are tightened in anticipation of falling weather.

Dalton leveled his gun to shoot a wild cat, this evening but it proved to be Kelly yawning out near his stand.

THURSDAY NOV. 13TH.

The sky cleared during the night and all signs of rain have disappeared, still very warm. White and Pendleton made a drive along the Club House Road and dogs soon had up several deer. A nice 4 point buck came out near Caudle's stand and Caudle persuaded him to stay with one shot. The call was then sounded and while Metcalf was sitting on his horse near his stand waiting for the others to come up, a pretty fat, 3 point buck came jumping toward him, but a shot from Metcalf's pump gun brought him to a stand still, though he fired two more shots to make sure he would stay with him. Two more drives were then made further on, but without results, and all returned to camp fully satisfied and contented with the day's work.

During our absence on the drive a fine big buck came to camp, said to be Luke, wiggled his tail and passed on, though fired at twice by White and Wash who had returned to camp. Two other deer passed near camp during the day. A splendid supper and jolly good time around the camp fire ended the day's sport.

FRIDAY NOV. 14TH.

Clouded up during the night and began to rain early this morning and continued to drizzle most of the day. Capt. Pendleton made a short drive below camp with a few standers placed along the camp, but without success. Cooper went prospecting down near the club house but only secured a shot at a large buck at long range. Hunters remained in camp most of the day, it being too wet and disagreeable to do otherwise.

Radford left us to-day, being called away to Florida on urgent business. We are all, indeed, very sorry to have him go, as he is a jolly good fellow whom we shall miss greatly, especially those who secure good shots and get no meat. Luke rendered a solo this morning dedicated to various members of the hunt which ran somewhat as follows:

"Who's been shootin' deer?
Who's been tryin'?
Who's been missin' deer
All die time?"

which was given at Barker's request.

"FOR ALL CATARRHAL COMPLAINTS"

Pe-ru-na is Most Excellent," Writes Congressman John L. Sheppard.

CONGRESSMAN JOHN L. SHEPPARD.

Congressman John L. Sheppard, Member of Congress from Texas, writes: "Gentlemen:—I have used Peru-na in my family and find it a most excellent remedy for all catarrhal complaints."—Congressman John L. Sheppard.

THERE are two things that the whole medical profession agrees about concerning catarrh. The first is that catarrh is the most prevalent and omnipresent disease to which the people in the United States are subject. All classes of people have it. Those who stay in doors much and those who go outdoors much. Working classes have it and sedentary classes have it.

The doctor finds catarrh to be his constant and ever-present foe. It complicates nearly every disease he is called upon to treat. He still believes he has solved it. He cures thousands of people annually. During all these years Peru-na has been the remedy upon which he has relied, and it was at first a private prescription, afterwards manufactured expressly for him in large quantities. This remedy, Peru-na, is now to be found in every drug store and nearly every home in the land. It is the only reliable internal remedy ever devised to cure any case of catarrh, however long the case may have been standing.

A Case of Neuralgic Catarrh of Five Years' Standing Cured by Peru-na.

Hon. Rudolph M. Patterson, a well-known lawyer, of Chicago, Ill., writes: "I have been a sufferer from nasal catarrh for the past five years and at the earnest solicitation of a friend I tried Peru-na and am glad to say it has afforded a complete cure. It is with pleasure I recommend it to others."—Rudolph M. Patterson.

A cousin of Peru-na never fails to bring relief. There is no other remedy like Peru-na. Its cures are prompt and permanent.

Mr. Camillus Senna, 307 West 129th street, New York, writes:

"I have fully recovered from my catarrhal troubles. I suffered for three years with catarrh of the head, nose and throat, but at last I have been cured by the wonderful remedy called Peru-na."

Mr. Camillus Senna.

"I read of Peru-na in your almanac, and wrote you for advice, which I followed. After taking only one small bottle of Peru-na I am entirely cured, and can recommend Peru-na to anyone as the best and surest remedy for any catarrhal trouble."—Camillus Senna.

Hearing Lost by Catarrh—Restored by Peru-na.

Mr. William Beaur, Burton, Texas, a Glaser and Miller, writes:

"Some years ago I lost the hearing in my left ear, and upon examination by a specialist, it was decided to be the cause. I took a course of treatment and regained my hearing for a time but I soon lost it completely. I commenced to take Peru-na according to directions and have taken eight bottles in all, and my hearing is completely restored, and I shall sing the praises of Peru-na whenever an opportunity occurs."—Wm. Beaur.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

"WORMWOOD" TO-NIGHT.

One of Most Popular Successes of Year.

"Wormwood, or The Absinthe Drinkers of Paris," which will be produced at Holland's Opera House tonight, is one of the most popular successes of the year. Its combination of dramatic merit, heart interest and sensational development, combined with the great lesson of temperance which it teaches, makes it a play of extraordinary interest to all classes of theatre goers. Chas. W. Chase, the dramatist, has made many changes in the Correll story in preparing it for the stage, the results of which will be found more than pleasing to those who witness its presentation. The character of Silvino has been turned into a poet, Mephisto has been introduced as one of the principal characters and a happy ending of the tragic events will be welcomed by the readers of the novel as a most pleasant innovation.

HART,

The Laugh King, Coming to Hopkinsville Next Week.

Stanley Ward Hart, who is so popular with theater goers here, will be seen at Holland's Opera House in a series of three performances, commencing Thursday night, February 5.

Dr. Hart's performances are always interesting, mystifying and extremely laughable, and we are always glad to welcome him. Speaking of his work the Daily News, Wilson, N. C., says:

"It is safe to say that the opera house never held a better pleased or more enthusiastic audience than the one of last night, and that Hart, the Laugh King, is past master in the art of making the most staid and conservative citizens laugh till tears run from their eyes was clearly demonstrated and this is putting it mildly."

The stage was filled with gentlemen who were anxious to give Dr. Hart a trial. He succeeded in hypnotizing nearly all that went up and having so many good subjects to work with he was able to completely eclipse the first night's performance.

In rapid succession the subjects were put through scene after scene, each one more ludicrous than its predecessor while the large audience were convulsed with laughter from the rise of the curtain on the first scene to its fall on the last. They dreamed they were deaf and dumb, telling a funny story on their fingers to the audience, were picking up bushels of silver dollars, flirting with pretty girls, had rats up their coat sleeves and trousers legs, and a hundred other ridiculous things. The living or cataleptic statuary was a feature of the program and excited much comment."

DURING 1903

We are going to increase our lines in every Department and incidentally our efforts to please our friends in quality and price.

Speaking of quality, a farmer cannot be too particular as to the QUALITY of FIELD SEEDS he buys. It is so easy to POISON a farm with Buckhorn and Wild Onions, and it is so hard to get rid of these pests. Our seed buyer is very careful as to this, and our immense seed trade is a mark of our customers' appreciation of our scrupulous care in this point. We sell seeds over a territory of 50 miles in diameter, because the quality can be depended upon.

To those Farmers who have had enough of Trusts, tobacco trusts and others, we wish to announce that we have contracted this year for the Osborne Binders, Mowers, Hay Rakes and Tedders, Cultivators and Harrows. These are ANTI-TRUST goods. Every article sold with a guarantee.
